

Roblox BedWars:1v3

It was sunday. It was my favorite day because I always got to play extra video games. Oh no what's happening i thought as everything went vblack. I was back to VR again. So I did what I always do. I joined a match with my friends. We made a custom game with 1 against 3. So I chose my best kit. Ares. This kit can throw electric charged spears that do a truck load of damage. So we joined and I got 16 iron, ran to mid got 3 emeralds and went back to base.

I bought a zipline to get to the diamonds and then I upgraded gen and went back to base. I bought three spears and leather armor and I fought Logan and won. I ran to their base and hit them all off with the spears I bought earlier.

Then I went to break their bed but got killed. After that I bought a bunch of stuff and tried to rush them again but they had turrets so I decided not to. Then I went to buy some better armor and more spears. So I then ran towards them with spears hitting them off again. Then I blocked their base up with 3 layers of stone and broke their bed. I ran towards the cliff to hit them with my spears. I did and won.

The End
