

Roblox Bedwars: Barbarian and freiya

By James Clark

My friends it is time for me to tell a tale about the barbarian and freiya kits in bedwars. Me and makua chose our kits, me being barbarian and him freiya. We hopped into some doubles and we started to defend the bed and rush. I ran in and started hitting them until I had a stone sword then we built up so they couldn't hit us. Makua said he had his frost so we went back to base and got armor.

We ran back and started to kill them then someone broke our bed, so I broke their bed and finished them off so i had an iron sword. We ran back to base and got iron armor and blocks so we could get some diamonds. We got armor upgrades so we were stronger and then we pushed mid.

I killed players while makua grabbed the emeralds. I got a diamond sword so we went to base to get makua diamond armor. He gave me the leftover ems to get us balloons. We ran over to the nearest base in hopes to try and get the rageblade. I killed one and ran away cuz I was low on hp and killed the other. I GOT THE RAGEBLADEEEEE i screamed YES YES YES YES YES is all i heard on the other side. We started destroying teams. He would break the bed while my rageblade sliced through them with ease.

Over all we won and barbarian kit has been one of my favorite kits ever.
