Chapter 1

Sherlock and his partner, Watson, were waiting in their office in London, waiting for a phone call. About, 20 or 30 minutes later, a phone call came in. Watson picked up the phone, it was a manager from the museum. They thought it was something positive but was horrific. The manager said that the queen's jewel was STOLEN.

Chapter 2

As Watson and Holmes head to the museum, Watson asks Holmes "why would somebody want to steal the queen's jewel?" "I don't know?" said Holmes. "But there are guards EVERYWHERE!!" said Watson "I know but how... but how did they pull off this robbery?" they were thinking about it the way there and once they got there, they were devastated. Everything was ripped apart! And every single room was a catastrophe. Then Holmes realized that some of the famous paintings were stolen as well.

Chapter Name

Then Holmes noticed that the video cameras were pointing at the same exact spot where the jewel was stolen. "We have to go to the manager's office," said Holmes, "why?" said Watson. As they were speed walking to the manager's office, they walked past the paintings that were ripped apart. Holmes was thinking why they didn't stop the jewel robbery or they didn't sound the alarm. Once Holmes and Watson got to the manager's office, they looked at the cameras, and he found the people who stole it. One of them was a lady, the rest of them were men. As they were looking at the video, Holmes scanned the lady's face from the camera, her name was...

Chapter 4

Charlotte Butowski, she was born in 1952, age 25, and she had red hair, she lives on Boston street in London. The other men were her brother's. Scully and Jim were their names. Holmes and Watson sped down from the museum. To Boston street they hit the brakes as soon as they came to the house. Watson kicked open the door and they saw nothing in sight. Once they walked in, they found a note that said, "if you want the paintings and jewel back you will have to detonate the BOMB!" they could not see the bomb anywhere. Holmes knocked his knuckle on the wall on the right. he started to hear "tik tik tik tik tik tik tik" on the wall. "Watson grab a hammer NOW" said Holmes, "why?" said Watson, "JUST GRAB ONE!!!" yelled holmes. Holmes grabbed a hammer and tossed it to Holmes, Holmes started banging the hammer on the wall. Finally, they found the bomb.

Chapter 5

They took the bomb out of the wall and they opened the bomb. There were two red wires and one blue wire "how are you going to do this?" said Watson, "I-I don't know?"
