Roblox BedWars:The Second Match

It was a week earlier the first time it happened. It's happened again. I'm back in the wonky VR. I went to go into a match with my cousin and my friends Wyatt, Logan, and makua. But this time we chose SQUADS. Not 2 people, 4. We were going to win this tournament. This time I also chose a different kit. I chose trapper kit so I could stun people with snap traps. and my friends chose the kits jade and jack. So we went into the game and each got 16 iron this time because the distance was longer. And also there were less teams but they had more people. So I went to the diamonds and Wyatt went to the emeralds.

I upgraded our generator to tier 2 and Wyatt bought us some balloons and armor. We all went to mid and took out a few people and makua used his jade hammer to double jump to the red base and smash them into the air. We ran towards the red bed to break it. We had Logan throw a barrel of pumpkin oil to slow them down and kill them.

Next we started running towards the mid to get diamond armor and swords. But we had to face off with the green team for them so makua slammed them into the air and I placed traps under them and we killed them. Then wyatt used his vulcan kit to place some turrets to attack anything that went to mid. The next thing we did was buy our equipment and run towards the green cuz they were being a nuisance. We killed them but on the way back it said that yellow got our bed. So we took out their bed and we faced off at mid. They bowed off Wyatt and then makua slammed one off the edge. And then logan pumpkin oiled them but they killed makua and logan. It was all up to me.

I placed a ton of traps while they were getting out of the pumpkin oil and then snap! I had killed the rest of them.when the game ended and brought me back to the real world i said good jod to my teammates and we all logged off.

The End
